

SOME TEXAS TOWNS

Cameron, Feb. 24.—A big rat campaign is being waged in Cameron under auspices of the Commercial club. To trap and kill the rats in our city means much toward making it a sanitary and healthy place. The masque entertainment at the High School Friday was an enjoyable affair. The debate was interesting. Mr. John Davis being on the side in defense of the court house feels very proud that his side won. The subject of the debate was "Which has done more for civilization the church, the school, or the court house?" Messrs. Miller and McGill had several good points on their side. Prof. J. W. Bartlett, C. E. Kelly, Mrs. L. I. Montgomery, Miss Ida Mayo and Lillie Bennett deserve much credit for the splendid work that is being done in the night school. Services were well attended at Cameron Grove and Bethel A. M. E. Pastors Hunter and Hughes were present. At 11 a. m. the reporter had the rare pleasure of listening to Rev. W. Miller preach on the "New Old Way." Words are inadequate to express how forceful he presented the spiritual argument. We believe without a doubt that he is winning souls as well as raising money for the Master. The members of this church (Bethel A. M. E.) subscribed liberally to the $50,000 drive among whom were Pastor Hughes, who subscribed $100, Mrs. Hughes, $100, Mrs. A. B. Robinson $50.00. Mr. J. M. Sewell $100, Mr. Ira Pascal $50.00, Mrs. Ella Woods, $50.00. More than $900 was subscribed. Practically $150 was paid during that service besides the other collection. Prof. W. L. Fuller, Educational Secretary of the General Convention was in the city last week. Mrs. Tenna Cunningham is visiting relatives and friends in Troy, Ala. Mrs. Mildred Richardson and Mrs. Ida Lee Neely spent the week-end visiting their sister, Mrs. L. V. Dixon at Lott. Currie School will have a mid-season concert Feb. 23. All are cordially invited. Music will be furnished by Mrs. B. E. Johnson. Regardless of the increased price, the list of readers for the Express increases each week. The reporter will be glad to get news for the write-up.

Richardson officiating. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge here and the body will be sent to Planterville for burial. Claud Smith and General Woolard accompanied the body. Rev. H. M. McKinney closed a successful revival at A. M. E. Church with 40 additions. You will find the agent of the Express at Union Station each Saturday. Hurry, I want 200 subscribers by April.

Sherman, Feb. 24.—Mr. Miles Jones, one of our pioneer citizens, departed this life on the 9th instant at 2:05 a. m. at his home on South 1st St. The funeral was attended on the 11th instant at Harmony Baptist, of which he was a consistent Christian member, by Rev. Dr. H. D. Allen, the pastor. The Rev. R. W. Stanford, wholesale hardware store, which he had worked for 23 years closed to allow the employees to attend the funeral. Rev. A. N. Wordlow of Bonham, who pastors at Paris has accepted the pastorate of New Hope Baptist and will preach his inaugural sermon at New Hope on the 20th instant. Mr. Elias Johnson, one of our leading young men, an alumnus of Fred Douglas High School has returned from Prairie View auto and mechanical school as a full fledged graduate of that school. Others who graduated were: Messrs. John Williams, Corliss, Grant, Dennis, Platon; Howard Jackson, Shreveport; Henson Evans, San Augustine; C. E. Ferguson, Nacogdoches. He expects to do mechanical work in Muskogee. Mrs. Anna Booker now of Ada, Okla., sold her homestead, corner Rusk and Jones street which she has owned for nearly 50 years. To J. Beldon for $1054. Calvert was for years deacon of Providence Baptist Church. He leaves a brother, wife, a nephew, Mr. Ed. Scott and some children to survive him. Miss Odessa Drew is back in school after a few days away on account of sickness. Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Ayers are back home after a stay of three months. They killed boys Monday and are now feasting on back bones and ribs. Prof. and Mrs. Pashley are enjoying over a new corner, a boy that pulled the scales at ten pounds. Mr. Ford is now at Martin at 101 N. 5th. The Marlin S. Martin stopped over to see Mr. Jno. Edwards, both agents for the Standard Life Insurance Co. Mr. Jim White of New Mexico is in the city visiting relatives. Mrs. B. C. Holland Parish, an old Calvert citizen passed away Sunday at 7 a. m. in the city of Houston and her remains will be shipped to this city for burial. She was born and raised in the city where she has a host of friends and relatives. The citizens of Calvert met at the residence of Mrs. P. Gibson and marched to the residence of Miss Ella Cooley and stoned her with about $20 worth of groceries. Bethel Baptist Church of which she is a member and Rev. M. L. Covington, pastor, is the originator of this splendid move.

Williamsville Community.
Mr. Freeman Salter, Mr. Wm. Shepard and Mr. Hal Salter made some needed repairs at the school campus Tuesday. The school has enrolled some sixty pupils and now thinking of adding or putting on the second teacher in case they can find one who can play music. Mrs. Ruth Pickard and sons were in Wednesday and bought food stuff for their stock. Sunday School was lively Sunday; much interest was manifested. The superintendent is doing all his power to bring the Sunday School up to a high standard. Miss Julia Powers is now teaching at Beale Chapel in Milam County, and Mrs. Rachel Powers is at Mt. Zion, both assistant teachers. Mr. P. A. Hunter came in Sunday morning to see his wife, Mrs. E. P. Hunter, teacher at Spring Hill. Calvert Public School is going over the top this year. Enrollment is past the 500 mark. Mr. Scott, our janitor, deserves credit for his services. Several visitors graced our campus this week. Among them were Mrs. Harold and Covington and Prof. Day. Prof. Day delivered a very timely address to the High School Department and everyone went away feeling proud of his presence. They say, "Come again, Prof. Day." Read the "Dallas Express." Miss J. where she was called by phone on Sunday left Sunday for Houston on account of the death of her aunt, Mrs. Beulah Parish. Mr. Chas. Parish of Mexico spent Sunday in Calvert. On account of bad weather, we failed to get our paper to the reporter, Mr. Jim Smith. Hence no report from Pleasant Grove and Mt. Zion. Mr. J. I. Williams was in but left before the agent could send out the papers. If you want information of importance read the Dallas Express. Leave all the news for the Dallas Express with Mr. Dan Bowles or Mr. Tobias Woodward. Mrs. J. E. Edwards's sister of Oklahoma spent a few days in the city. The funeral of her sister, Mrs. John Edwards.

Terrell, Feb. 24.—There have been three weeks since we have had a paper. Hope this won't happen again. We had a nice rain on the 18th which was much needed, also a light freeze that damaged lots of fruit. Rev. T. W. Daily, P. C. of Bethlehem Baptist Church made a business trip to Palestine a few days. He is officially connected with the Colored Bank of that place. Mrs. Point McRuffin who was very sick, hearing of the death of her sister, who was an inmate of the asylum, died in a very few moments. Her sister's body was sent to Sulphur Springs for burial. While here was entered at the Terrell Cemetery. She left a husband, two sons, three daughters to survive her. Revs. Bell and Mrs. Yarbrough spent the week in Dallas attending the National Bishops' Council. Mr. J. H. Johnson, who went to Dallas in December 1920 to be operated upon for appendicitis is back home and is out of danger. All the people in Terrell are not good. Two race men working at the compress met in pasture, each refused to move for the other to pass. One laid aside his truck, reached for his knife, stabbed

His only excuse was that he got up on the wrong side of the bed. Parents keep our boys off the public thoroughfares on Sunday with their marble games and there will be a chance for some to think they have had home training. It is a disgrace and a public nuisance, also a training camp for the county farms, jails and penitentiary. Hereafter I will try to have the Express every Saturday at the Wesley's Studio. Be sure and call for it or phone 716 or 790 and we will send it out.

Jacksonville, Feb. 24.—The Dallas Express on sale every Saturday at Sanders and Tension Barber Shop. Rev. A. M. Mitchell, pastor of Rising Star Baptist Church filled his regular appointment Sunday. Mrs. Malissa Griffin accompanied by her husband, Mr. J. G. Griffin and D. Simms went to Dallas Feb. 16, where Mrs. Griffin underwent an operation at the St. Paul Sanitarium. At this writing she is getting along nicely. Mr. Green Lacy and Louvenia Fuller were quietly married last week. Rev. Brown officiated. A mass meeting of the citizens of the town and all the churches met at the C. M. E. Church Friday night. The cemetery organization was organized with the following officers elected: Prof. J. H. Rev. B. N. Brown of El Centro, California, preached a stirring sermon Sunday night at Rising Star Church from the 5th Ephesians, text: "Redeeming the time for it is at hand. Subject: 'We are living in an evil day.' The great preacher was at his best and preached a sermon that will be remembered by those who heard him. Mr. A. C. Connor of Del Rio is in the city visiting his wife, Mrs. Willie Cunco, who has been confined to her bed for two weeks is up. Mr. George Dent Ray, the Colored painter, is painting the Rising Star Baptist Church. Mr. Oscar D. Brant left Saturday night for Mansfield, La., and says send the paper to him each week. Mr. Tom Love is now a reader of the Dallas Express. Also Mrs. Rabson.

Waco, Feb. 24.—I sent the little boys out Saturday with the Express and when they returned they made the following statement: "The people say they ain't going to pay no dime for that paper." We need more men, real men like Rev. E. H. Baker, who when asked to patronize the Dallas Express said, "Yes, you can deliver it to 1502 N. 7th St., Bro. Garrett." That's the kind of men it takes, not only to make a dime paper go that is worth a dollar, but anything else that's worthwhile. You can make a race with men like Rev. Hooker, for he and other faithful ministers understand that the Dallas Express is one, though but one, a mighty arm in the bulwark of civilization for the race. Bro. M. W. Stephens, pastor of Mount Zion Church, takes the paper so cheerfully. Does not the good book tell us "Blessed is the cheerful giver and the liberal soul shall be made fat?" H. K. Garrett to state that after the boys reported Bro. Garrett went out and returned with his report; 23 sold, one given to the boys and one reserved of the 25. If you write our news we'll sell your paper, or report to the company the reason why.

Mr. Zion is progressing nicely under the leadership of Rev. M. W. Stephens. The revival of 23 days, resulted in one conversion and 7 accessions. The meeting started Saturday Night and ended in return of souls to the Lord and in a very successful rally the first Sunday in February. A very interesting program was rendered last Sunday night under the direction of Mrs. K. W. McMillan of St. James M. E. Church. Bro. Stephens says that they are in their Easter drive for their quota in full. "Over the top" is their watch word. Mrs. Beasley, a sister of Mrs. B. Benson, died in the home of her sister Saturday. She had been ill for some time. Mrs. M. W. Owens of Kentucky Street is suffering with rheumatism. Mrs. Cecilia Cobb has just returned from Provident Sanitarium where she underwent an operation. Sister Cobb is doing nicely. Mrs. C. B. Olline, who is also ill, C. B. and sister are at their aunt's and uncle's. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Cobb, Mrs. Wm. Williams of 1018 N. 6th fuses if he doesn't get the Express every Saturday. Brother Garrett enjoyed services with Rev. P. A. Westbrook Sunday. Coming home Eastside, Bro. Garrett ran upon one of the best prepared dinners ever eaten in a home time, at another customer's house on Jefferson. Mr. Anthony M. Young, after having pulled chicken and eaten cake until I could not do much else but talk and ask questions, I was informed that the dinner had been given for Mrs. E. J. Vaughn, 1301 Ray street. Misses Francis Rowe, Cora Marshall and Misses Carry Taylor, Lillie Young and Lulu Ellis invited them there to dine with them at Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Young's and still another came in, Mrs. Walker from 2nd and Jefferson. She takes these papers when they come to me, I pay for them in advance, 5 cents per copy. I give the boys 3 cents to sell them. I get 2 cents per copy. Now do you or anybody else see any robbery in that? Mrs. G. S. Corner, 1001 N. 6th street, has just returned from a three weeks trip to Nashville. She says she enjoyed her visit very much. She brought her mother back with her to make Waco her home. Mrs. Lono Willis, better known as Grana Willis, 912 N. 6th street, has been ill for some time. Mrs. Hattie Mae Willis of Dallas and little daughter, Loyd are at their mother's and grandfather's. Mrs. Susan Leslie's 602 N. 6th street. Judge R. D. Evans of this city has just returned from Houston, when he has asked the court that has the right to test the legality of the Negro vote in the Democratic Primaries of the State of Texas.

The Forum's meeting nights is Tuesday night in every week. Mr. W. H. King, one of the supported and directors of the Standard Life Insurance Co. delivered a very interesting address at New Hope Baptist Church Wednesday night, Feb. 16 in behalf of his work. His talk was timely and full of thought. Prof. B. Y. Aycock's family of Rockdale, Prof. J. A. Davis now of Marshall, A. Day of Houston and quite a number of other professors and reverends were present. The Forum met last Tuesday night at Rev. Benn's church, Edward Chapel, on N. 8th St. Bro. O. H. Benn is a subscriber to the Express, are you? Let's line up. Please phone your news earlier than Friday not later than Monday noon. Phone 5065. T. B. Garrett, Reporter, 1004 N. 6th street.

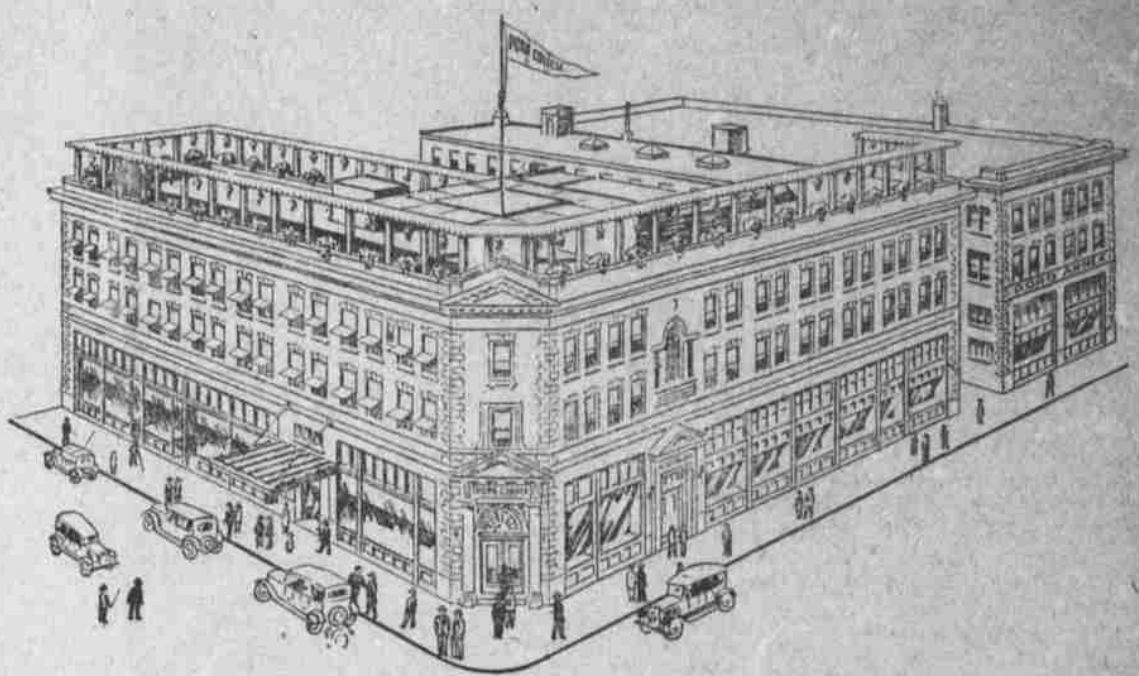

Hempill, Feb. 24.—Macedonia Baptist Church had regular pastoral services Sunday and Sunday night with Rev. M. Daniels, pastor in the pulpit. Our church owed some $200 or more and one effort of him on the Fifth Sunday of January last, $100 of the debt was paid. Rev. Daniels accepted the pastorate in October last, preached his first sermon as such on the second Sunday in Jan. and on the fifth gave us his services with the above results. Yesterday and last night's collection amounted to $11.50. There have been only four additions to the church. Of course we have among us sinners "to let" but they all belong to the church. Rev. Daniel Battle of the M. E. Church returned Tuesday of last week from an extended visit to Paris, his old home, and other points in N. E. Texas. Rev. Evans Deacon S. E. Gabriel of East Marfield, Mrs. Ben Crockett of Sexton and Mrs. Maner via Hamilton and children of Milam were all visitors among us Sunday. Prof. W. A. Brown, principal Call High School made a flying trip here yesterday. Prof. Brown is an old friend and co-worker of the writer. Deacon Battle of the Sunlight Church was with his family at Macedonia Church Sunday and Sunday night. Old people sometimes fail to see the error of their own children but can see all the fault in others. Prevalts among us too much. Read the Express and get from across the road of progress for the race. It sometimes makes us wonder as to what kin, if any, the devil is to God, for he is so strong. Death claimed Miss Lora Shipp, Feb. 10th, after an illness of about three years. Interment at Macedonia Cemetery.

Temple, Feb. 24.—S. C. Carothers is operating a first class grocery store on E. Avenue D, and So. 6th Street, and solicits your patronage. The LaBelle Cafe located on E. Ave. B, is being operated by Mrs. E. A. Anderson. Instead of going in the back door of the white restaurants, let us walk in the front door of the LaBelle Cafe and eat off the dining tables instead of the kitchen tables. L. L. Moody after visiting his mother in Paris last Sunday returned home and reports a nice trip. $50.00 each was designated to the twenty-three women captains who took active parts in the Wayman Chapel A. M. E. rally, which closed the 2nd Sunday instant. The amount of money raised by the majority of the workers was far beyond their assessments. Mrs. Pearl Spencer headed the leading role with $125.00, while Mrs. Jerry Moore was second with $101.05. With this, and the reports from the other captains made a total for six weeks rally, $1,456.48. Rev. L. M. Sanders, pastor, thinks the women did excellent, and stated that the men's rally would start last Sunday, the 20th, and run six weeks and that he hoped the men would do better. The Bell County Rural Association (for Colored people) owned, and collected for Colored people has been set up, and is gaining a successful head-way. The association is composed of the following officers: E. Ward, president; S. C. Crenshaw, vice-president; I. L. Moody, secretary; Mrs. Ida Dawson, treasurer. Ed. Blair, Grover C. Meredith and J. H. Cockrell, trustees. Lucious Green, after an attack of blood poison in one of his feet, as a result of being hurt under a refrigerator is improving. Mrs. Joe Wright is reported sick at this writing.
